In Ecclesiastes 1:9 of the Bible, the sages of old made the statement, "... and there is no new thing under the sun". Such a remark may seem a little startling to twentieth century man, who firmly believes that he is so advanced that all the difference in the world exists between himself and his more primitive ancestors who lived several hundred years ago. Such may be the case now that man is beginning to thrust himself into outer space, but life here on earth today is essentially not too far removed from the life of yesteryear. Modern man has developed different ways of doing things, but life is basically not too different from that of men of generations ago. Actually modern man owes a great debt to those who have preceded him.

Centuries ago, people living on the hundreds of little islands and larger land formations in the Aegean area that we know as Greece, developed a civilization that is basic to the civilization we hold dear today. True, our methods of recreation, education, government, and economics have kept pace with the ages, but yet, life in both times is remarkably similar.

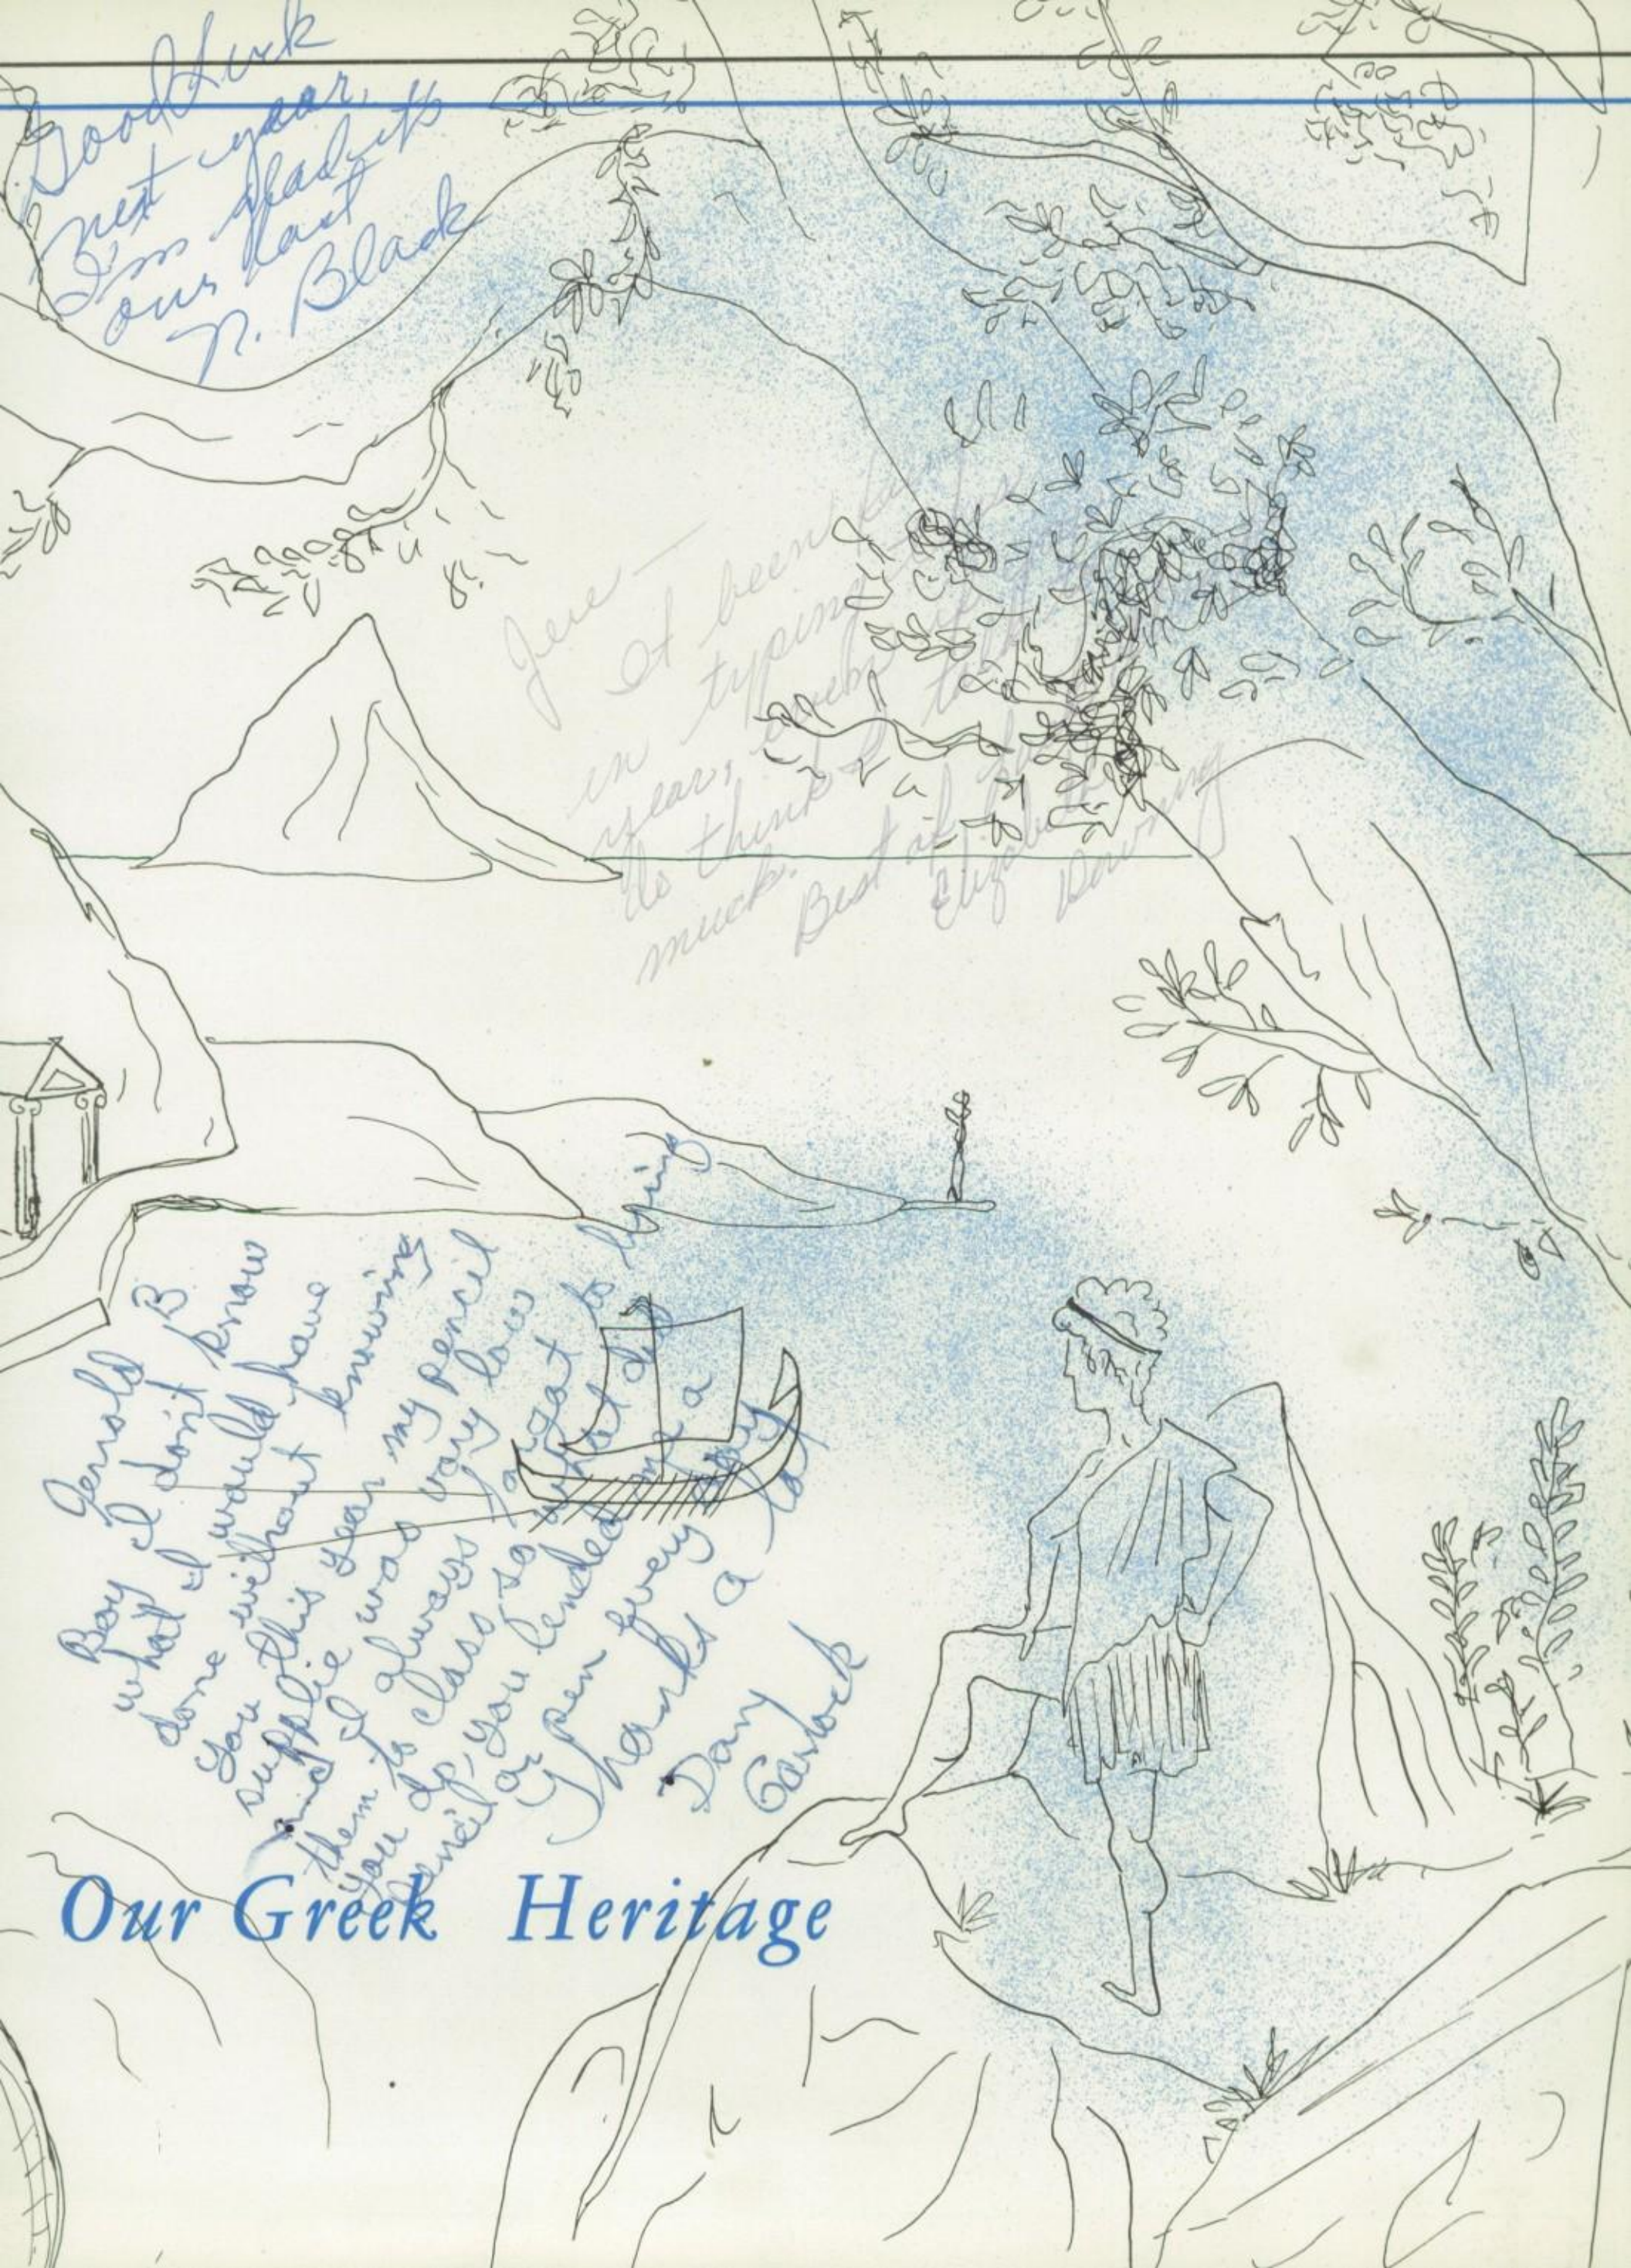

In these few pages, since the name of our school bears that of a proud ancient Greek city state, the Oracle hopes to turn back the clock and trace for you a small part of our "heritage from the Greeks".

Good Luck

Schools are not built with bricks and books alone. A happy student community owes a great deal to the help and dedication given it by teachers and administrators.

Within the large community of Sierra—students, faculty, and alumni, there exists a person who has displayed exceptional loyalty, devotion, and enthusiasm during a long teaching career in the Whittier Union High School District.

She has taught many phases of education, everything from English and history to physical education and annual staff, and has been a special counselor in the Sierra Guidance Office. She has given her own quiet wisdom, counsel and assurance to countless students during her years with the district.

For her work as a teacher and as a friend, above and beyond the call of duty, she will be remembered by Spartans long after graduation has signaled the completion of their high school educations.

So it is with special appreciation and gratitude for all the help and guidance she has given to us and to the community that we dedicate this, the 1962 Oracle, to Miss Marjorie Jones. Truly, service is her career.

Even though the ideas and ways of doing things differed among the various Greek city-states, they all had one major belief in common—the value of a good education. The city of Athens developed a well-rounded program of education as they tried to live up to their ideal of "a perfect mind in a perfect body." The common people could not do this alone, so the job of teaching the young fell upon wise men who were called Sophists. These men taught the discipline of logic as well as the fundamentals of reading and writing. They went deep into any and all sources of knowledge to bring out everything they could discover to educate their pupils well.

Today, more than ever, we too need wise men to help bring us knowledge. The members of our faculty are our Sophists, who are especially trained to help us delve into the mysteries of the centuries in search of truth and wisdom. They help us to find the ways to form our own "perfect mind in a perfect body."

Solving the problems that arise in a school district such as the Whittier Union High School District, is not an easy job. Countless numbers of details concerning budgets, curriculum, maintenance, operation and many other subjects have to be tackled by the District administrators. They must translate the policies made by the Board of Trustees into practical, everyday reality. Although few students ever meet the persons pictured here, the effects of their work benefit each student in the Whittier Union High School District.

In our great democracy, public institutions are under the direct control of the people. A large school district such as the Whittier Union High School District is no exception. The people of this area periodically go to the polls to elect a five member Board of Trustees, the members of which serve for a period of three years with no financial compensation.

Every two weeks, these dedicated people put aside their personal lives in order to meet in an official capacity. As the representatives of the people, they have the responsibility of preparing the Community's greatest resource — its youth. They solve the many problems of providing the finest educational opportunities possible within the confines of the financial means of the community.

With each passing year our annuals take on the quality of becoming more and more a mirror of memories. Five years, a decade, or a quarter of a century from now, when you open your Oracle, the name Sierra will evoke many nostalgic and varied emotions. Long remembered will be the faces of friends among fellow students and faculty. Perhaps you will recall some of the ABC's of High School: Activities, Books, and Counseling.

As Sierra's administrators, we recognize that our greatest contribution is to help produce a strong and well-balanced high school program. Our school is at its best when business and activities, curriculum and guidance and all other aspects of school life are working together toward the development and improvement of the individual Spartan student.

It has been our wish to see that you as graduating seniors receive the very finest preparation at Sierra for your future. We hope that we have served you well.

To all Spartans go our congratulations and thanks as well as our best wishes for your continued accomplishments and achievements in the years to come.

Probably our greatest heritage from Greece came from the Athenians—our idea of government. Since these people believed that all citizens could participate in government, the idea of democracy came into being. The word democracy itself is Greek and means "rule by the people". In Athens all male citizens over eighteen years of age were eligible to sit as a member of the general Assembly, which made the laws of the city-state. Also, most important offices were filled by elections. Even the army generals got their jobs through the ballot. In return for this privilege, each citizen was expected to play an active part in the government, and nearly everyone held some kind of public job at least once in his life.

Even though our nation is too large to allow everyone to vote in one assembly, the democratic tradition is the basis of our system too, although we elect people to take care of the day to day job of lawmaking for us.

In our schools today, students are taught about the workings of our government to prepare them for the day when they too can take an active part. To help prepare them, a student government is organized where anyone can gain experience in holding public office, and where the responsibilities of the office holder to the electorate and of the electorate to the office holder become apparent in meaningful day to day experiences.

TED ROBISON
President

Dear Student Body,

This past year has been the greatest in Sierra's history. On behalf of your A.S.B. Cabinet I would like to thank you for your spirit, co-operation and general attitude displayed during this year. The fine name and reputation of Sierra High has been greatly furthered because of you.

Sierra achieved its greatness this year not because of the work of your A.S.B. Cabinet, but because you, whether you are a Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, or Senior, gave some of your time, energy and talent to our great school. A school is only as good as the students who attend it, and Sierra is the finest of schools for just that reason.

I would also like to express my deepest appreciation to you for allowing me to serve you as your President this past year. It has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life.

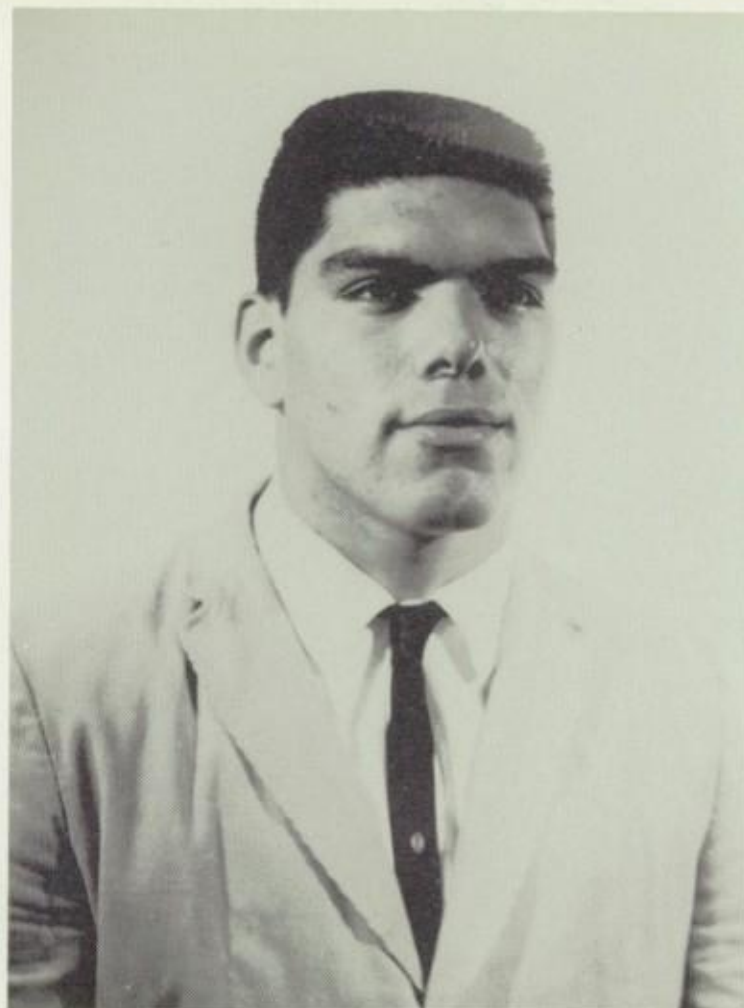

The words "thank you" do not begin to express how I really feel, but that is all I can say — Thank you.

Sincerely,

Every year the students go to the polls to exercise their democratic privilege of selecting these people who will officially represent them for the coming year. Last year they selected the people pictured on these pages. They comprised the Associated Student Body Cabinet, which met every day during the year to approve expenditures and budgets, to plan assemblies, and to organize all other functions carried on in the name of the associated student body. In their various capacities, they averaged many hundreds of hours serving the school and the students of Sierra High School.

From the first day of school, the nine girls who form the Girls' League Cabinet were busy planning the three major events in the lives of Sierra's Spartanettes, Fall Follies, the Girls' League Dance, and the all new Sadie Hawkins' Week.

They put in an enormous amount of work making intricate plans for both the all-girl variety show, Fall Follies, and their annual girl-ask-boy formal, "Winter Rhapsody." To conclude the year the girls and their advisers initiated something entirely new on the Spartan campus, the Sadie Hawkins' Week, a series of fun-filled activities which included the crowning of a "Cotton Queen," and the selection of a "Mr. Irresistible." The Week's fun was concluded with a Sadie Hawkins' dance, preceded by a carnival complete with a "Marryin' Sam Booth."

By eighteen years of age, the education of an Athenian youth was usually completed. The termination of his studies also marked the beginning of his duties as an adult in society with all the privileges and responsibilities that accompany adulthood. In order to commemorate the person's coming of age, the boy's family usually held a simple festival, at which time his hair, which had always been worn long, was clipped short. Later, at the temple of Aglaurus, he, along with other young men, took an oath of loyalty to the city-state and its laws

With the completion of the commencement ceremonies in June, approximately 450 young adults from Sierra will take their place in society. They will find that life will present them with many problems to be solved, along with many good times and happy memories. Like the Greeks of old, they will repeatedly call upon the skills and knowledge they learned in school to help them make the proper decisions as they travel the road of "successful living".

Class of 1962

Senior Class

Dear Senior Class,

I am proud to have worked with such a capable senior council and class, which have done excellent jobs in making our senior year a success.

The senior council has ably carried out its duties of fund raising, sponsoring the class play, the senior tea, the senior breakfast, and the senior all-night party. These events have helped make this a better school year and certainly one that has been full of activities.

With graduation, you will enter a world where you will have many new responsibilities and where you must make many decisions. In successfully meeting these challenges, you will call again and again upon the many things you have learned here at school. In the process of acquiring this education, you have also helped make Sierra one of the best schools in this area.

As members of a self-governing society, each Greek was keenly aware of the importance of being educated. In Athens the state required all the boys to attend school. It was not considered necessary for the girls to be literate. Starting at the age of six, the boys attended private, tuition supported grammar schools, where they were taught the fundamentals of reading, writing, arithmetic, and sometimes music. By the time they reached fourteen, the children of poorer parents dropped out of school to assist in a craft or trade. The children of wealthier parents hired more advanced teachers known as Sophists, who taught them higher mathematics, logic, history, astronomy, and public speaking.

Since our democracy encompasses a much larger number of people, the need for education is even greater than it was in ancient Greece. To prepare our young people for citizenship and successful living, public schools were established where both boys and girls can have the opportunity to learn those skills necessary to see them through the tremendous tasks of living successful, happy lives as useful members of society.

Junior Class

Lewis Jones
President

This year has been an outstanding one for the Junior Class. As president, I have been very gratified to work with the Junior Class Council and to observe the many things they have accomplished for the class.

The council has worked hard raising money for the Junior-Senior Prom by giving after game dances and selling refreshments. The council members worked equally hard on the planning of a successful Prom.

I would like to express my gratitude to the Junior Class as a whole for its support and cooperation. I would like to thank the council members for their hard work and also the faculty advisers for their help with the council's activities.

Sincerely,

Lewis Jones

Junior Class President

Tony Anderson
President

Dear Sophomore Class,

Your class council has done an exceedingly fine job this year. The first major project was the tricycle race, the Sophomore contribution to the March of Dimes week, which was a fantastic success and will probably become an annual event at Sierra. The latter part of the year was spent with such activities as a dance and the selection of class rings.

I greatly appreciate the help and participation of both the Sophomore Class and the Council on all the activities. On behalf of the Council and myself, I would like to thank our class advisers for their very fine advice and help on all our projects.

Sincerely,

Tony Anderson

Freshman Class

Dear Freshman Class,

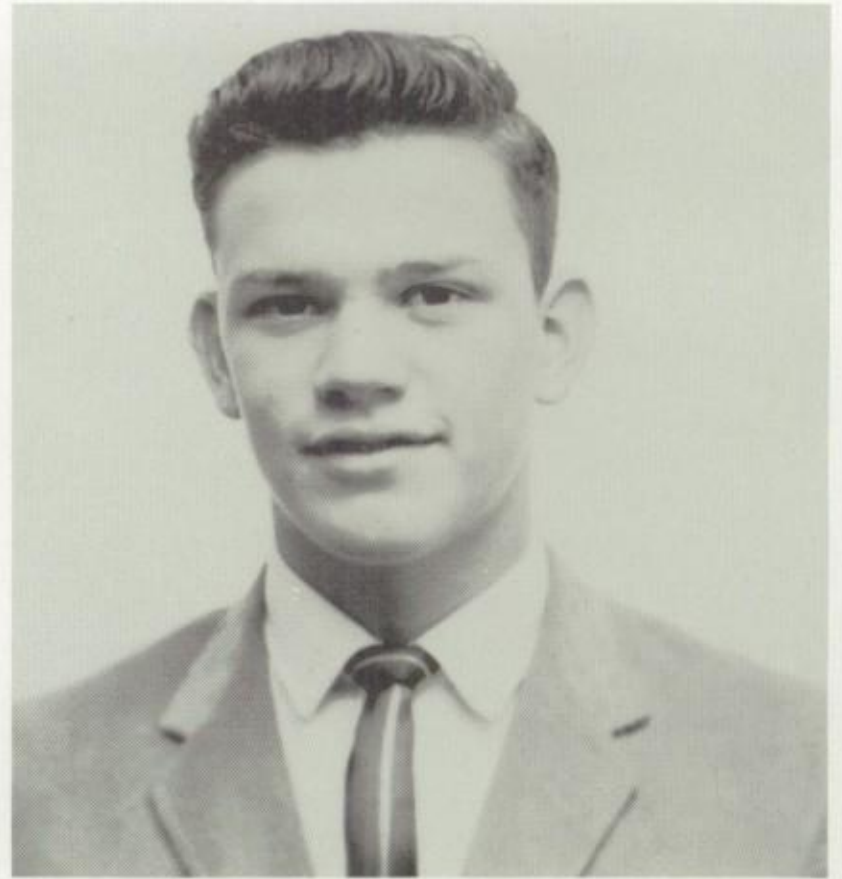

This year our class has shown Sierra that the "Spartan Spirit" has become a part of us. The tape race we sponsored for the March of Dimes raised over sixty dollars, and our class gave more than eighty dollars to the Red Cross. Our dance was a big success and it helped to expand our class treasury.

We all have three full years ahead of us, and it's our duty to make the most of them. I am sure that if we are as successful in the next three years as we were this year, we will have a bright future to look forward to.

Sincerely,

Warren Wallace

Gerry—
I want to thank ya for all the help you have given me and I surely wish you a lot of success in the future.
Sincerely,
Carol Cannon

Throughout history people have always managed to get together with other people who shared a common interest. Often these groups became organized with established rules of procedure and with acknowledged leaders. The ancient Greeks organized into such groups for many reasons — to train for athletic contests, to give dramatic presentations, to perform special religious ceremonies, or to debate the various philosophies of life.

Modern education also provides opportunities for people to get together with others to discuss, study, and work on various fields of common interest. At Sierra, an outstanding club program has been organized where students and faculty can pursue various areas that are not necessarily included in the regular curriculum. Such organizations add to the enrichment of the educational program by giving inquisitive young minds an opportunity to do special research in specialized fields.

Alma Mater

All hail to Sierra

We stand to your gloried fame,

As proud as the mountains

Which loftily share your name.

This song now we raise

In thanks and in praise

For guiding us on our way.

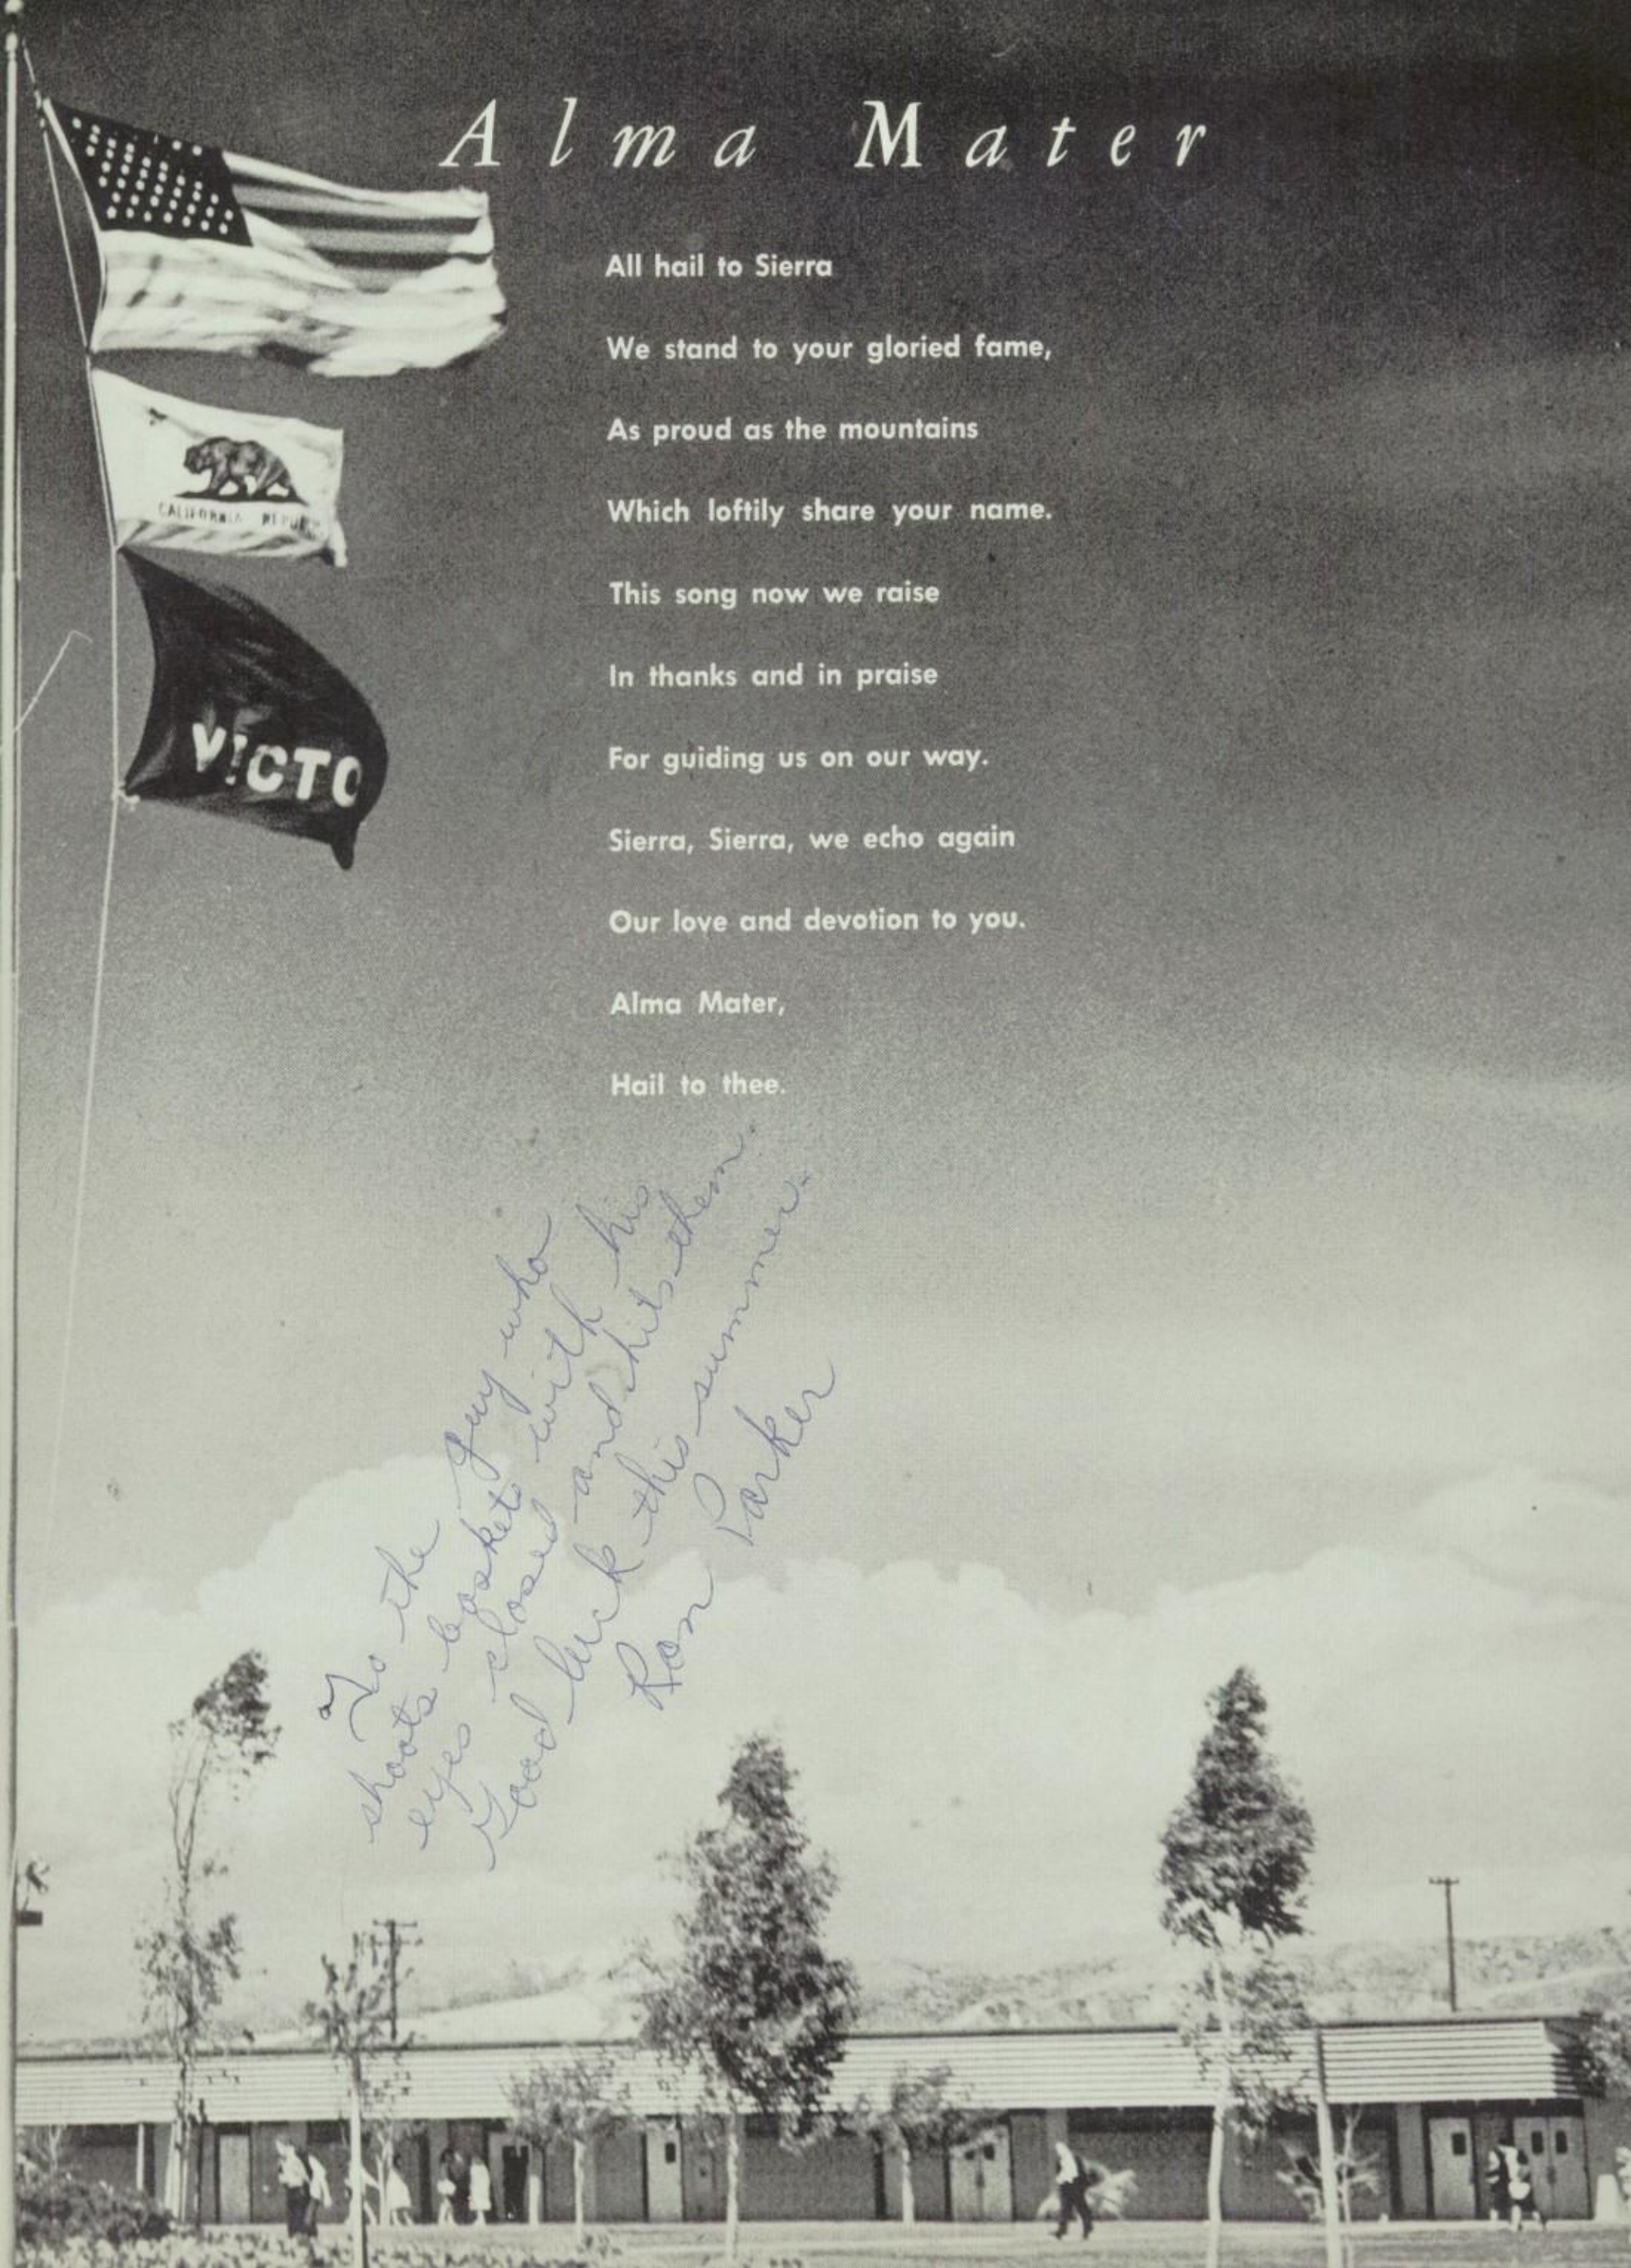

Sierra, Sierra, we echo again

Our love and devotion to you.

Alma Mater,

Hail to thee.

To the guy who shoots baskets with his eyes closed and hits them
Good luck and his team
Ron Parker

Within the confines of ML 100, more commonly known as the publications office, the Oracle Staff members met each day throughout the year to put together the hundreds of pictures, cutlines and blocks of copy which you now have before you in the form of the 1962 yearbook.

Sometimes things never seemed to go right. The tremendous athletic victories this year that resulted in extended seasons played havoc when meeting deadlines was concerned. Toward the end of the year it appeared that there would be a "photo" finish concerning photographic supplies. Oh, Well! We could always substitute autograph pages if the film ran out. Even though there were many times when we all wanted to give in to what seemed impossible odds, a spirit of perseverance kept us together and kept us plugging away at the book.

Well, after many hours of aspirin gulping and frantic typing, the Oracle is here. We hope you enjoy it!

Throughout the school year, with a combination of curiosity, shorthand notes, press passes and activity summonses, the fifteen reporters and editors who comprised the staff, interviewed campus personalities and reported many phases of campus news to the more than 2,000 members of the student body, the Whittier community, and the greater Los Angeles area.

Not every moment in an ancient Greek's life was concerned with making a living. In fact, the Greeks were among the first people to develop fine arts in their culture. Music, art, poetry, and drama were taught to most of the children as a regular part of their education. By the time a boy was twelve or thirteen years old he took up music, not with the intention of becoming a professional performer, but because it was necessary for an educated man to be able to accompany himself as a social grace.

The Greeks were particularly noted for their drama, which had its origin from their religious observances. Although Greek tragedy and comedy originated for ceremonial purposes, they soon became one of the most popular types of activities attended by the average person. In fact, so popular did Greek theatrical productions become that great amphitheaters were built throughout the Greek world, many of which could seat 15,000 or more spectators.

Modern man, like his ancient predecessors, also has a great fondness for activities of all types. In the modern school, activities are carefully planned to give the students a chance to express themselves in a constructive manner and to develop an appreciation of the fine arts. Sierra's many varied activities provide these opportunities for all.

QUEEN VIVIAN

Whittier Rose Queen

New Year's Day came very early for Vivian Senac, as she made herself ready to preside over the City of Whittier's float, Clouds of Flowers, in the 73rd Annual Tournament of Roses.

Vivian's journey to success started early in the school year when her name, along with those of several other senior girls, was submitted for consideration by faculty members. From among this group only one would be selected to represent the Spartan Campus in the parade. After a series of interviews, the candidates were narrowed down to five finalists. After further screening, the committee finally announced that Vivian had emerged the victor and would represent the school.

Later, in the annual Whittier Christmas parade, Vivian and the representatives from the other six high schools in the district appeared together for the first time as they received a preview of what that big day in January would be like.

On the evening of December 16, the seven girls were honored guests at the Sierra Girls' League Dance, Winter Rhapsody, where the announcement was to be made as to which of the lucky girls would rule over the rest as float queen. Anxiously the group waited, and finally Mayor Roy C. Morris broke the suspense with the announcement that for the first time the honor would go to Sierra High. Vivian would reign as queen.

As the sun went down on New Year's Day, 1962, a tired but happy Vivian reluctantly stepped down from her royal position. Even though she was queen for just a day, she would have enough memories to last a lifetime.

Foreign Exchange Program

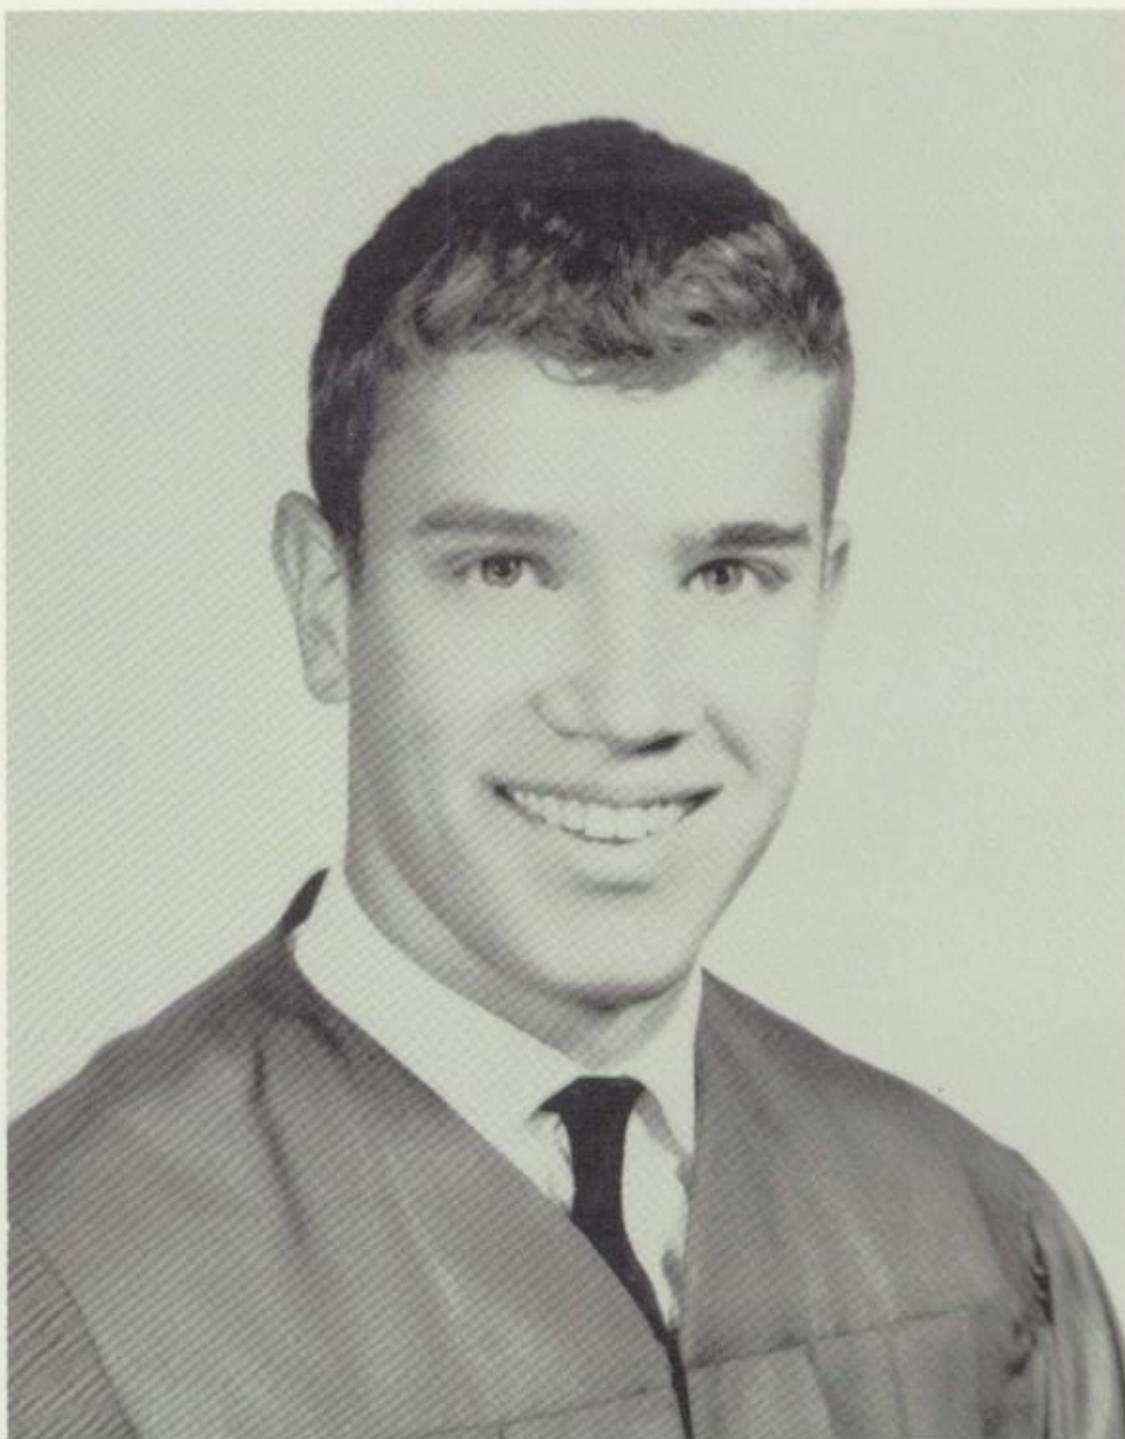

In 1914 the American Field Service, a private, non-profit educational organization, was established to further understanding and good will among the peoples of the world. Since 1947, a major part of its efforts has been in arranging exchange programs whereby American teenagers may have the opportunity to live with families in foreign lands and to attend foreign schools. The American Field Service also arranges for teenagers of other countries to live with families in the United States.

Since the opening of Sierra five years ago, plans have been underway for an exchange student to visit as the guest of the student body. Since the host school must raise the necessary travel expenses plus enough for a monthly allowance for the visitor, the school was not able to actually invite an exchange student until this year.

Sierra's first Foreign Exchange is Roland Hammer, who comes from the little town of Solothurn in Switzerland. Roland has been living with the Claxton family and is enrolled in such classes as United States History and English, where he has an opportunity to learn about the great past and traditions of our country. Although Roland found American schools different from the ones he knew in Europe, he has made a successful adjustment, and today a person has a hard time distinguishing him from any other Sierra student.

While Roland has been becoming "Americanized," plans have been underway by the student body, campus groups, the P.T.A., and interested people in the community to raise the necessary funds to send a student from Sierra abroad next year. The biggest campus activity for this purpose was an "International Costume Dance" sponsored by the World Friendship Club.

Shortly after Christmas vacation, the project received a welcome addition, when an anonymous friend surprisingly donated over $600 to the cause. As funds accumulated, Sierra students were processed and as this book goes to press, it appears that Sierra may be able to send two representatives, Diane Drennen and Ken Rethmeier, as our first foreign exchange students abroad during the 1962-63 school year.

For the few weeks immediately preceding October 26, most of the girls on the Spartan campus were busily fitting costumes, learning lyrics, and rehearsing dance routines. Why all the hectic activity? Why, Fall Follies, of course! What else?

Sponsored by the Girls' League, the 1961 show, Harum Scarum Harlequinade, was set in a medieval court and centered around the efforts of various talented subjects of the realm to entertain the royal family.

The performance was presented two consecutive nights before capacity audiences that were marked by the absence of teen-age male spectators, since the entire production is presented primarily to female students and their parents. After the second performance, six of the nine acts received awards for being tops in several categories. Even though everyone was relieved that the many hours of hard work were over, many a performer felt a touch of nostalgia knowing that the curtain had rung down for the last time and the harlequins would dance no more.

After five weeks of strenuous rehearsal, Sierra's drama department presented the much awarded play, Arsenic and Old Lace, written by Joseph Kesselring.

The play, which opened November 31 for a three day run, centered around two sweet, maidenly aunts who considered it an act of kindness to end the suffering of lonely old men by offering them lethal drinks of elderberry wine and poison, much to the consternation of their drama critic nephew, who accidentally discovered their ghastly secret. Their diabolical scheme is unwittingly aided by a mentally unbalanced nephew who thinks he is Teddy Roosevelt and obligingly disposes of the bodies by burying them in the locks of the "Panama Canal" he is digging in the cellar. Adding to the confusion, another brother, a big time gangster, returns to the homestead.

For two and a half hours, the audience was taken into a merry, mixed-up world of cadavers, gangsters and romance, only to be surprised that everything turns out all right in the end.

"We don't want any strange bodies in our house. Mr. Spenalzo must go at once!"

Assemblies

On November 30, Gil Shelton entertained the Student Body with a program of folk music.

On February 2, Sierra's first Exchange Student, Roland Hammer, presented a program where he showed slides of his native Switzerland.

For superior achievement in all school activities, Karen McChrystal was presented the Outstanding Freshmen Award for the year 1962, by Mr. Ralph Hilbert, a member of the East Whittier Lion's Club.

On November 27, the Seniors of Sierra had the privilege of being addressed by the honorable John Rousselot, Congressman for the Whittier area.

On November 3, Sierra had as its guest Mr. Zino Clinker, a former script writer for Comedian Edgar Bergen, who presented a humorous history of the airplane.

Command

The Skyliters provided music accompaniment to the entire production.

"Encore! Encore!" Such cries arose from the audience as the final curtain fell on this year's talent show, the 1962 Command Performance, given on March 16th and 17th. The audience wanted more, and even the participants yielded a few sorrowful tears, but alas, all good things must come to an end. After weeks of immeasurable effort, along with much rewarding fun and accomplishment, those in the show had performed for the last time.

The entire production provided an outstanding example of the professional qualities that are obtained when the various talents of the music, dramatic, physical education, and art departments are assembled in one common activity.

Couples danced merrily around a silver, stylized Christmas tree that extended to the ceiling.

Winter Rhapsody

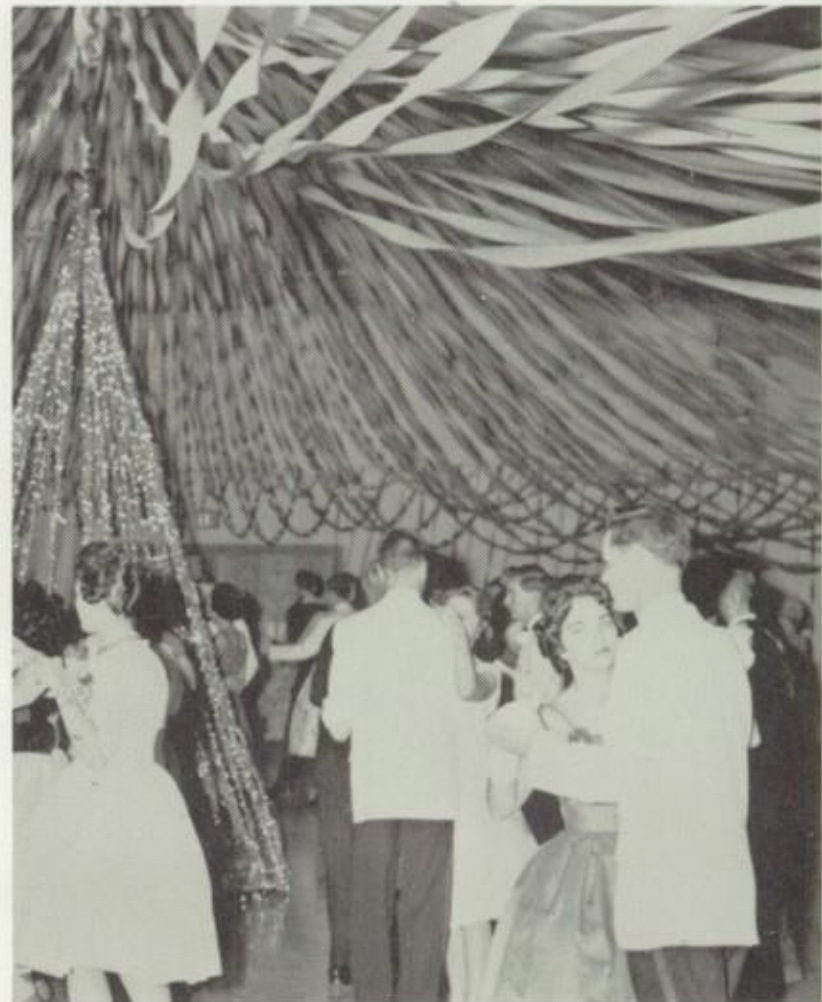

Queen Vivian reigned for the first time over her court at the Girls' League Dance.

The couples that attended the Girls' League formal dance, Winter Rhapsody on December 16, found the boys' gymnasium magically transformed into a winter wonderland with a crepe paper ceiling of ice blue and silver streamers hovering over a stylized tinsel Christmas tree that extended clear to the roof. The Esquires of Montebello added to the illusion as they successfully put the dancers in a holiday mood with the strains of soft, dreamy music.

The climax of the evening occurred when Mayor Roy C. Morris announced the happy news that Sierra's candidate to ride the Whittier float in the Tournament of Roses, Vivian Senac, had been chosen by the Whittier Rose Float Association to reign over the group as its queen. He then proceeded to crown Queen Vivian while the crowd signaled its approval with a generous round of applause.

Spartans began two weeks of Christmas festivities by attending the Winter Rhapsody.

The Esquires set the musical mood for the dancing couples.

March of Dimes

John Miller, Mr. Intellect; Bud Baker, Mr. Un-Coordinated; Speedy Taylor, Mr. Athletic and Pat Hughes, Mr. Playboy, compete for the title of "Mr. Out of This World."

January was set aside as national March of Dimes month in the United States. In order to make the event a success on the Spartan campus, the Student Senate organized a week of activities that were designed to entertain the student body, while at the same time, raise funds for this worthy cause.

The fun began with a tape race early in the week and progressed through a noon dance, a "Mr. Out of This World" contest, and climaxed with the first Sierra Invitational Tricycle Race.

All donations were tabulated by grade levels, and at the end of the week it was announced that the Freshmen had made the greatest contribution, thereby winning the privilege of being excused from a class later in the year to view a major Hollywood production.

As the festivities ended, everyone admitted that he had had a good time, and the March of Dimes found itself $232 closer to its financial goal for the 1962 year.

Thrills and spills characterized the tricycle race as faculty and student teams competed for track honors.

The crowd grew excited as the Freshman class took the lead in the tape race that opened the 1962 March of Dimes festivities.

Frank Lopez beams approval as Jo Steele officially crowns Speedy Taylor "Mr. Out of This World."

The Greeks were the first people in the world to find time for leisure enjoyment. An existence which was all work and no play had no attraction for them. Consequently, they developed many types of games, such as running, jumping, discus throwing, wrestling, and boxing.

Fundamentally, the games were to help the men keep physically fit, for they felt that a good body was as important as a good mind, since the men might have to take up arms at any moment to defend their homes from attack by the other city-states.

But once every four years, during the heat of summer, differences were put aside so that all of the city-states could participate in the most famous of all athletic contests, the Olympic Games. Here competitors and spectators gathered from every part of the Greek world for the series of games held in honor of Olympian Zeus.

The idea of engaging in friendly competition while developing a healthy body is also an important part of modern education. Students learn team work in physical education classes while at the same time they are developing their bodies and releasing tensions and anxieties that often build up in modern society.

Hailed as the finest football team in the history of the school, the hard fighting Spartans of Sierra made many records which will be long remembered and hard to beat. The season started with a victory over Serra High. Other pre-season action was high-lighted by a 0-0 tie with Los Altos, and a 3-0 victory over Cal-Hi before a capacity crowd. At the end of the pre-season play, the big Sierra team was well on its way toward a great season of football, being undefeated and unscored against in all their games.

The First Suburban League game brought victory against the Lancers of La Serna and was the highlight of the homecoming events. In the following weeks, the Spartans traveled to the Excelsior field to do battle with Artesia and La Mirada High Schools. It was during the game with Artesia that the only touchdown in league play was scored against the mighty Sierra defense. Throughout the season, students became accustomed to seeing the Victory Flag flying high over the Sierra campus.

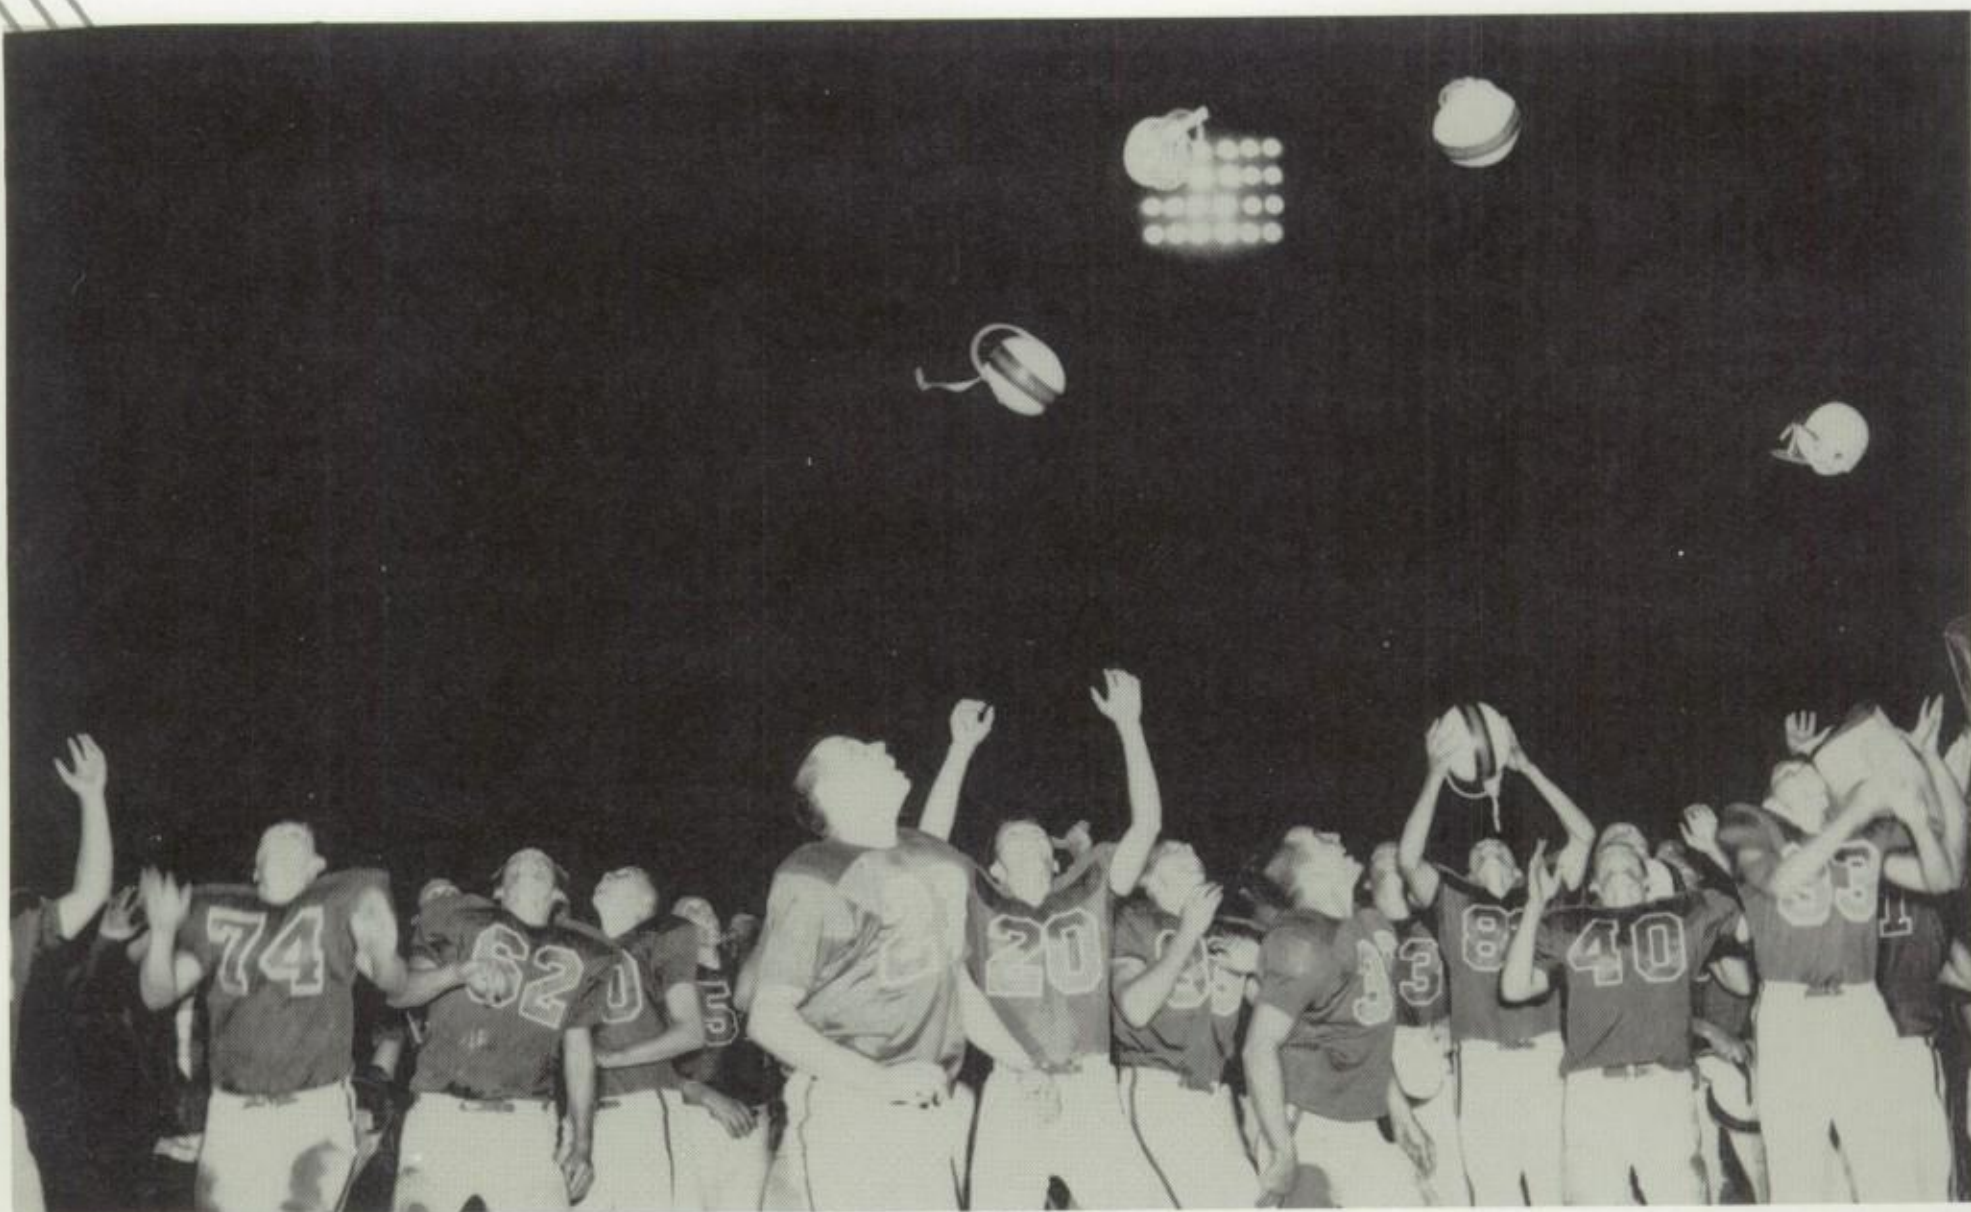

The team battled its way into C.I.F. semi-finals by beating the West Covina Spartans in a decisive 20-0 victory on the Spartan's home field. It was on a rain soaked field that the unbeaten team from Sierra finally met defeat in a hard fought battle which ended with the Centaurs of Culver City winning by a six point margin.

Football

The Junior Varsity Team ended the 1961 season in the same style as did the Varsity by winning the Suburban League Championship. In ending the finest season in the history of the school, the team had a record of 7 wins and 1 loss. The only game lost was a heart breaker to Cal Hi. The long line of victories include wins over Montebello, Artesia, La Mirada, Mayfair, and a 32-0 win over Los Altos.

Winning six out of nine games, the Bee football squad placed third in the Suburban League this year. The team was exceptionally well balanced with two very good back-fields and equally good lines.

The first of three upsets came early in the season when Los Altos took a 12-6 decision over them, but the hard fighting Sierra team came back, and in the next four weeks, took games from Santa Fe, Cal Hi, Artesia, and La Serna. The only two league teams able to beat the Bee's were La Mirada and Pioneer.

The Cee Football Team showed tremendous speed and skill in bringing Sierra its first Cee championship in the history of the school. Paced by a hard hitting, single-wing offense and an equally strong defense, the Spartans rolled to a near perfect season record of 9-0-1. The only mar in their record was 14-14 tie with Santa Fe in a non-league battle. The last game of the season found the Spartans and the Titans of Pioneer tied for the league championship, making it the most crucial game of the year for the hard hitting Sierra team. The Titan field was the scene of the game for the Suburban League crown. When the battle was over, the Spartans came out on top with a score of 7-6. This was the greatest day of the year for both the team and its two new coaches, Mr. Joseph Wolf and Mr. Paul Ward.

1961 - '62 League Champions

The Varsity Basketball Team ended its 1961-62 season with a record of 19 wins and 4 losses. Following in the steps of other varsity teams here at Sierra, the big men of the basketball court also took the top spot in the Suburban League.

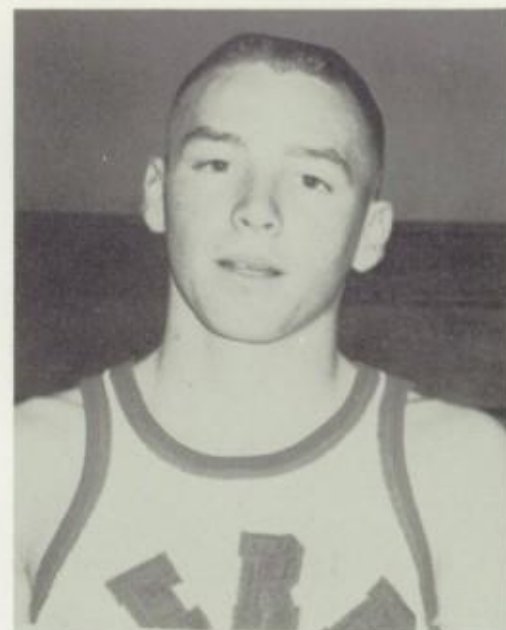

From the very start of the season, the hard fighting Spartans showed that they were going to be a hard team to beat. At the end of pre-season play, the team had a record of 9-3, making them the top team in the Whittier District. Highlights of the pre-season play included victories over Cal. Hi, 49-30, along with a 68-51 victory over the Cardinals of Whittier.

The beginning of league play found the Spartans competing against the new La Serna Lancers in the Cal. Hi. gym. The Spartans took this game in easy stride, winning the match by a score of 61-34. From this great beginning, the team went on to win every game they were to play in league competition, giving Sierra its first unbeaten varsity basketball team.

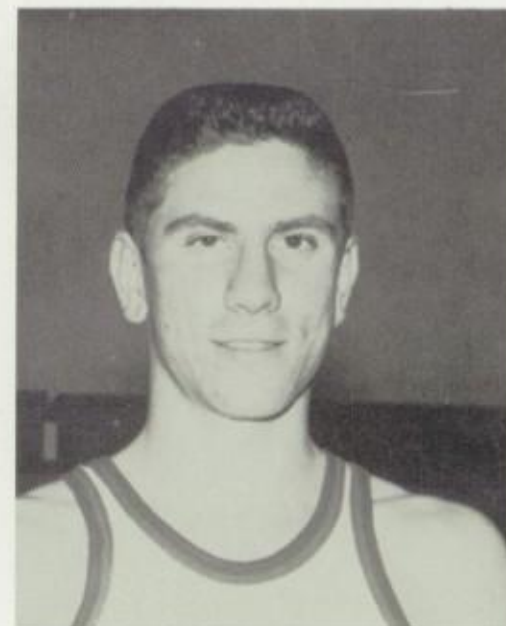

From here, the team went into C.I.F. competition, playing its first game against Costa Mesa, which it lost by the narrow margin of 67-66 during one minute of overtime play.

At press time, hopes were high that the Bee Swim Team might take second place in the Suburban League. To date, the outstanding wins have been over Lowell High and over California and La Serna Highs at a tri-meet, which the Spartans won by 50 to 30. Mr. Poucher said that the outstanding players on the team were Captain Pete Thelin, Chris Griffith, and Carl Bruckman.

Athlete of the Year

After concluding a fine season of Athletics here at Sierra, the coaching staff put their heads together to try and decide who of the many fine Spartans did the most for his team and school. This person was to be given the title, "Athlete of the year."

To obtain this honor, a boy had to be a well rounded athlete. He must also have shown good sportsmanship and have a satisfactory scholastic record.

This year's most honored athlete began his sports career while a Sophomore as a defensive lineman on the varsity football team. From this he learned many valuable lessons, while gaining a great deal of experience.

In his Junior year, he was a big part of the team and was an obvious standout. His fellow teammates honored him by selecting him captain. He was further honored when he was made, by unanimous selection, a member of the Sierra League, All-League Team. It was also in his Junior year that he again finished the season with a notable record.

It was not until this year, though, that people outside of the Whittier area were to hear of this fine athlete. At the end of a fine football season, he was once again honored by being unanimously selected to the All-District Team. He then received All-League recognition for the second year in a row and was the unanimous choice for the Surburban League Player of the Year.

He then went on to be the only Triple A school player to be selected to the First Team, All School C.I.F. Football Team. He was also one of the first selected to play on the Shrine North-South Football Game this summer. This fine Sierra Athlete also received honorable mention on the Scholastic Coach, All-American High School Team.

On the basis of his exceptional record, Senior FRANK LOPEZ has been named "Athlete of the Year" for 1962.

Tennis

For the second year in a row, the Spartanette tennis team completed the season without a single loss, again making them the championship team in the Whittier Union High School District.

Starting in October, the team, under the leadership of Captain Becky Hicks, played a hectic season schedule that included two matches with each of the other schools in the district. The top singles player this year was Judy Noble, while Kathy Jerome and Pat Tebbets headed the doubles team. By the close of the season, due to the outstanding coaching of Miss Louise Van Dommelen and the dedicated effort of the players, the girls again emerged the best in interschool competition.

Volleyball

After playing twice a week during the months of November, December, and January, the G.A.A. volleyball team concluded its season by having the top score of any school in the Whittier Union High School District, and was therefore awarded the first place trophy for their achievement.

On October 5, 1961, the Girls' Athletic Association held the first of several sports nights, where students and their parents engaged in friendly rivalry on the basketball and volleyball courts for approximately two hours. Several other such events were scheduled throughout the year.

The citizens of Greece had a wide variety of items from all parts of the known world from which to choose to make his life easier and more comfortable. Every day, ships brought goods to Grecian ports from Italy, Egypt, Spain, Africa and other distant lands. The youth of Athens could get a liberal education merely by visiting the many shops in town and viewing the wonderful products on sale from far away exotic places.

Today's youth has an even better opportunity to select from among world wide products. In a day's shopping in the Whittier community, he can purchase wonders from the shop just down the street or from some distant land that was unknown to a youth in Ancient Athens.

Just as in the days of old, the local businessmen play an important part in the lives of the students. They support school building and improvement plans, encourage school projects; make part time employment possible for young people, and often give of their valuable time to serve on a school committee or sponsor a "little league" team. As wise members of the community, they know that their investment of co-operation and interest will pay big dividends in better adults and an improved society.

In Appreciation

Between these covers we have tried to capture all the memories, joys and sorrows of Spartanville during this exciting school year, and believe me, it hasn't been easy. Many people in many different capacities worked to bring this 1962 Oracle to you.

A great deal of gratitude and appreciation is felt by the staff and myself for Mr. Richard B. Smith, our annual staff adviser, for the energy and many hours of extra time he devoted to this endeavor.

I want to thank the following staff members and interested friends for all their effort in making this book possible.

First, a great deal of thanks goes to Marlo Ann Cowan, my Assistant Editor, who, as second in command, had one of the most demanding jobs on the staff.

One of the most difficult jobs in putting out any book is that of composing the copy. This job was ably handled by Copy Editor Judie Caldwell, and her staff of Riki Ferguson, Kathy Hubbling, Carol Wright, and Kathy Bradley.

The tremendous art work and page layouts are primarily the work of Art Editor Carol Petersen, and her assistant, Becky Jones, who did the scenes of Greek life that appear on the division pages. They had a great deal of help from Susan Neill, Susan Kelly, and Sharon Watson in this effort.

Many hours of time were put in by Dave Dixon, Picture Editor, who had the job of making sure that all the pictures were taken, and that they turned out all right. Taking and printing the pictures were Keith Qualls, John Kessler, Ed McFadden, and Jim Henkel.

Melinda Davis, Cheryl Reinhardt, Phyllis West, Jim Johnson, and Dave Wallace, under the supervision of Sports Editors, Jim Goodridge and Jan Ferguson, were responsible for putting together the athletics section.

Last, but certainly not least of the staff members who deserve a great deal of credit, is Judy Litten, our Business Manager. Judy had the important job of raising enough money to pay for the book by stimulating sales to the student body and by selling advertising space to the local businessmen.

I want to say a special thanks to the following members of the administration for all the many different ways in which they helped the staff: Mr. John Chickanzeff, Mr. Robert Wolstoncroft, Mr. Orval McLellan, Mr. Peter DeVries, Mr. Robert Eicholtz, Mr. Arthur Harshbarger, Mr. John Landis, and Mrs. Cecilia Throp.

I could never begin to list all the many ways the ladies of the secretarial staff helped us this year. My deepest appreciation to Mrs. Pauline Isbell, Mrs. Terry Dewyer, Mrs. Beth Muller, Mrs. Betty Somes, Mrs. Helen Bell, Mrs. Helen Bee, Mrs. Kay Sponsler, Mrs. Zena Hill, Mrs. Sharon Hancock, and Miss Beatrice Pride.

For the help they so graciously offered throughout the year I wish to thank the following members of the faculty: Mr. Paton Marshall, Mr. Ellis Price, Mr. Robert Laidlaw, Mrs. Frances Heussenstamm, Mr. Martin Chodos, Mrs. Imogene Forker, Mr. Howard Lane, Mr. Don Herman and Mrs. Ruth Hughes.

For their patience and co-operation in helping us obtain pictures and information, even though they were occupied with their own busy schedules, the staff says "thanks" to the following members of the athletic departments: Miss Louise Van Dommelen, Mrs. Jacqueline Warren, Mrs. Mildred Lanyon, Mrs. Ruth Blake, Mr. Leo Fessenden, Mr. Don Stillwell, Mr. Don Poucher, Mr. Robert Dugard, Mr. Mahlon Conly, Mr. Len Craven, Mr. Fred Osmond, Mr. Mervin Bloom, Mr. Lester Hufford, and Mr. Joe Wolf.

The staff owes a special debt to the following people who worked closely with us this year: Mr. Robert Watson, Mr. Paul Morris and Mr. William Fisher of the J. Edmund Watson Studio for all their help with photography; Mr. Philip Clark of the S. K. Smith Cover Company; Mr. Ken Davidson and Mr. Wilbur Loe of the Taylor Publishing Company, and all the many businessmen in the Whittier Area who showed their confidence in our school by advertising in our book.

As this book comes to a close, on behalf of my staff and myself, I would like to especially thank you the student body, without whose help and co-operation there would be no book at all.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Taylor
